Enjoying Chianti and its Cuisine

As spring unfurls, Tuscany—especially the enchanting Chianti region—reveals its historic beauty. Book direct now and make sure to book the last available rooms at the best price!

Villa le Barone, with its breathtaking views of the rolling Chianti hills and lush countryside, offers a peaceful and intimate retreat for those seeking serenity and relaxation.

Tuscan living, of course, also means savoring its rich culinary traditions. Indulge in authentic dishes like Pappardelle al Cinghiale, Pici all'Aglione, Ribollita, Panzanella, Crostini Toscani, Pappa al Pomodoro, and the Iconic Bistecca alla Fiorentina.

Our Chef, David Brogioni, with the help of Valentina and Roberta, crafts a menu of delicious, light, and healthy Tuscan fare, all inspired by local flavors. Our philosophy celebrates regionality, with homemade bread and pasta, fresh seasonal ingredients, a great variety of antipasti, and irresistible desserts to end your meal on a sweet note.

We use extra virgin organic olive oil made from olives harvested right here at Villa le Barone and our nearby farm, Vecchienna, located in Alta Maremma. There, we also raise free-range cattle, ensuring that everything we serve is rooted in the land's finest offerings.

Light, leisurely lunches are served on our sunny terrace, while dinners can be enjoyed in our elegant indoor restaurant or al fresco on the terrace, surrounded by greenery.

To complement your meal, choose from our curated selection of local Chianti wines, each one handpicked to enhance the flavors of your meal and complete your Tuscan experience.

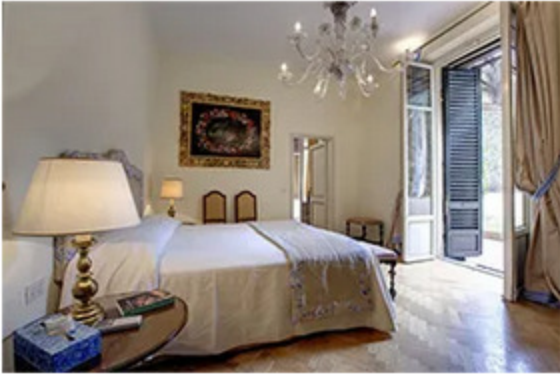

For those in search of the perfect escape, the Historic Hotel Villa le Barone offers a rare combination of elegance, tranquility, and natural beauty, paired with an unforgettable culinary journey that delights the senses.
