

Despite closing its gates on November 1st, the historic hotel Villa le Barone will not remain inactive this winter!

Our director, Stefania, and our receptionists, Sara and Lucia remain present throughout the winter to answer your questions and requests. Bookings for 2020 are now open and many old, and newcomers have already planned holidays in 2020 at Villa Le Barche.

Contact the Reception

Drita and Anisa, our housekeepers, are conducting deep cleaning and maintenance to fix any problems in guest rooms, lounges, and other communal areas.

Overall, we are proud to say that we got a 9.8/10 average in the feedback poll that our guests have kindly filled in. But we also know we can always do better, and any improvement suggestions are always taken into account during winter months, as we constantly try to improve quality and standards.

Enjoy Villa Le Baroque

The Villa Le Barone staff remains as faithful as ever! Returning guests (there are many!) will be happy to find Amira and her bouquets of fresh season flowers in the rooms, the entrance, the restaurant, as well as Loredana with her charming smile.

Looking for more detail

Our chef Davide Brogioni and his team will continue to delight you with his Tuscan cuisine served by Chiara and Cato. Our restaurant "Il Torchio" (the wine Press) offers Tuscan cuisine at its best, a cuisine renowned for its simplicity and focus on

Get ready for business compliance

Our gardeners Artim and Alessandro are hard at work maintaining the Villa Le Barone gardens, where, come 2026, you will be able to relax, enjoy the views from the infinity salted pool, as well as watch and listen to the chirping birds!

See cut gardens

Beyond annual maintenance and the continuing service we offer, we are expanding Villa le Barone with the creation of 5 new rooms in an old house just behind the Villa. We are keeping the same style as that of Villa le Barone ! But there will also be a common kitchen and a meeting room, to welcome small groups who wish to be more autonomous. This exciting project should keep us busy this winter !

Discover our bedroom and bathroom

There remains so much to discover all around Villa Le Barone: hiking along the Chianti rolling hills, biking on the "strade bianche" or on mythical cycling routes, and driving along small roads. Electric cars remain as welcome as ever, and charging is available with our 2 charging spots on our premises.

Explore Chianti and its hidden gems

Villa le Barone remains an inspiring place: some of our guests are painters, such as Suzie Leacock (@suziestudiolondon), Patrick Spencer (@patrickspencer.art), or Marco Bernadocchi. Others are writers, such as François Gagey (@francoisgagey) or Robert Polack (@robertpolackniji). But don't worry...you don't have to produce masterpieces during your stay at Villa Le Barone, you can also simply relax.

Get inspired!

Book now your next holidays!

We also offer other experiences such as:

If you are in search of a substantial year in the Tuscan countryside 20 minutes from Florence, we have just the thing for you, Villa il Rough, on the Ugoletti golf course.

Discover Wild & Rough

And if you wish to discover another, wilder part of Tuscany, the "Narentina Alta", come to Castello Vecchienna (Podere San Giuseppe or Borgo Vecchienna), another historic building, member of the Association of Italian Heritage Houses (ADSI).

Discover Castello di Vecchienna

Glorious Forsman

